YORK MEETING.

THE EBOR HANDICAP.

COURSE GOSSIP.

York, Wednesday.

as eminently gratifying to find a bright morning in York, and the only ques- stand was whether it was not too good t. Everyone hoped there would be no e, as, with a cessation of the persistent hich has prevailed so long, it was Ebor nger adorned with the prefix "great") leap Day.

erent has, to a certain extent, fallen its once high pedestal, but that it still ower to attract north-country sportsmen roved by the tremendous increase in the dance all round. This was especially able in the cheaper enclosures, as, s to the Executive in having the five ng roofed, visitors are well protected downpours. The going had, to a certain , recovered from its severe drenching, it was holding, and decidedly in favour ht weights.

idra of the size of the company may be ved from the fact there was even a plons stream of the public after the s had passed the post for the first race, almonte Plate. It was originally intended a Fillybeg and little E. Huxley had been ed to ride. An exercise, however, this ing he overpowered the boy in charge, alled some four miles before he could ailed up.

nually it was deemed advisable not to him, and Master Mac started favourite. ondon, however, was soundly backed, but served all over the place, being too much dson. Master Mac was running on, but ctor proved to be Amami, who at New- e in June last won a six furlong handicap ol style. She, however, was beaten twice wards. She was now sold to F. A. abe for 210gs.

lections for to-morrow:—

reat Yorkshire Stakes—Santair.

rewood Handicap—Stolen Cup.

ornerack Stakes—Meeting House.

ury John L. a standing dish for the Clifton e, and many hoped he would repeat his s victories in this particular race. He the service of his old pilot, Walter Griggs, the grey is going on in years, and though jumped off well he was in trouble half-way, the 33 to 1 Streep, who ran previously as ille colt, brought off an unexpected success r the guidance of Robbins.

ss Bleu, the heroine of the match with e Manole, at Newmarket, and also a winner Redcar, continued her successful career by king the whole of the running in the Rous o Year-Old Plate. Like Light Brigade, elio Two-Old Plate, Like Light Brigade, elio ight chance in Formamint, they, no doubt, were delighted they left.

Day Comet will not run in the Gimcrack Stakes and there is a doubt about Meeting House.

Orchestration certainly finished last in the Derby, but previously beat the useful Maiden Erleigh at Hurst Park. He was ridden by Higgs, in the Duke of York Stakes, but the weight proved too much in the going. Maher provided an exciting finish, however. Close home he tried to get up on the inside, but finding there was no room suddenly swished to the outside, and beat Dorman by a length. He now leads by one in the jockey list.

Betting—2 to 1 against King William, 3 to 1 Fort, 7 to 1 Martingale II., 10 to 1 Berrilldon, Election, and Mynora, 100 to 8 Red Cape, 100 to 7 St. Bruno, 100 to 6 St. Abban, 33 to 1 Bowman. St. Bruno led the parade, followed by King William, Martingale II., Fort, Red Cape, St. Abban, Berrilldon, and Election, the rear being brought up by Bowman. There was very little delay at the post, and the barrier ascended to a capital start. Berrilldon, second from the inside, made the running from St. Abban in the centre, Election on the inside, Fort, Red Cape, Bowman, Mynora, and King William, with St. Bruno last, for three furlongs, when Berrilldon and St. Abban had drawn several lengths clear of Election, Red Cape, Fort, St. Bruno, and King William; Martingale II gradually dropped into the rear. At half way Election began to improve his position, and shortly after entering the straight, at which juncture King William was taken over to the stand side, on the better going. Col. Story's colt closed with Berrilldon, Mynora, Fort, and Bowman also drawing up. A quarter of a mile from home Berrilldon was beaten; whereupon Election dashed to the front, followed by Mynora and Bowman, and increasing his lead at the distance won by four lengths; a similar distance divided second and third; Fort 4th, King William 5th, Berrilldon 6th, Red Cape 7th, Martingale II. 8th, and St. Bruno last. Time—3mins. 17 4-5secs.

NOTES AND ANTICIPATIONS.

London, Wednesday Night.

The York Meeting will be wound up to-morrow, and the card is certainly the best of the three, as in addition to the Harewood Handicap it contains two old-time events in the Gimcrack and Great Yorkshire Stakes. The last-named race has been won by many equine celebrities, including the great Stockwell, while inscribed on the Gimcrack roll of winners are many celebrated names, notably those of the Yorkshire idol Blink Bonny and Thormanby. We hear Doncaster Cup Day Cannot will not run in the Gimcrack, and that Meeting House may also be an absentee.

Selections:—

Middlethorpe Handicap—Prince Rupert.
Lowther Handicap—Gala Twenty.
Harewood Plate—Bashti.
Gimcrack Stakes—Flippant.
Great Yorkshire Stakes—Santair.
Fairfield Plate—Ethenic.

PAUCIL A BALLAGH.

NEWMARKET NOTES.

(From Our Correspondent.)

Newmarket, Wednesday.

Santair is sure to run well in the Grand Yorkshire Stakes, for which he is fancied. The Harewood Handicap should prove an interesting race, in which Astrg, who is smart, is expected to win.

LONDON BETTING.

London, Wednesday.

The market on the St. Leger to-day was again practically stagnant, only three candidates being mentioned, and the business about this was not quite unimportant. Lemond was eagerly bid for to 4, the rate being again tendered, and Maiden Erleigh was once laid at 8 to 1. Preferment was introduced, 20's being booked to the Duke of Devonshire's filly.

Wednesday, 3 p.m.

ST. LEGER.

(Run Wednesday, Sept. 11th). One mile 6 furlongs, 132 yards).

9 to 4 agst Lemond, t. and o.
8 to 1 — Maiden Erleigh, t. and o.
20 to 1 — Preferment, t. and o.

Wednesday, 5 p.m.

At the commencement of business on St. Leger Lemond was decidedly easier, but he finally left off a fair 9 to 4 chance. Maiden Erleigh was backed at 500 to 60 and 400 to 50. Neither Tracery, Hennor, nor Tacalite was mentioned, but late in the afternoon Pintadeau heard friend at 500 to 25. The only other noticed was Preferment, which was introduced at 20 to win a few hundreds. Later betting:

20 to 1 — Pintadeau, t. and o.

THE ACCIDENT TO FRANK WOOTTON.

The Press Association learns upon inquiry this morning that the condition of Frank Wootton, who met with a mishap while motor cycling yesterday, was much better. It is stated that the injuries are not serious, and it is expected that he will be out and about in a few days.

On enquiry this evening the Press Association was informed that Frank Wootton, who is suffering from a fractured collar-bone as the result of a motor cycle accident on Tuesday, had passed a very comfortable day, and that he is going on very well, indeed.

BITS OF SPORT.

In the Ebor Handicap C. Ringsted declared 6lbs overweight for Bowman.

YACHTING

SIR JAMES PENDER AT QUEENSTOWN.

Queenstown, Wednesday.

Sir James Pender, Bart., arrived at Queenstown this morning in board his handsome schooner yacht Lamorna, from Mount's Bay. Lady Pender and some friends are on board with Sir James.

There is no more consistent yachtsman than Sir James Pender, who for many years has been at the very forefront of yachting, and as such he is honoured amongst his class. He loves the sea, and though the Lamorna is an auxiliary schooner, he prefers to see his fleet vessel under her white wings than using her power.

While we were out at sea this morning to intercept the Carmania, the Lamorna entered the harbour, looking a picture under a press of canvas.

In a conversation which I had with the sporting Baronet, he told me, if the weather permitted, he intended going west, and would call at Castletownsend and Bantry, but the awful weather at present gives poor promise of a comfortable cruise. He thinks the 23 metre class is likely to cease because of the great expense of their upkeep. He owned Brynhild, the famous vessel which, it will be remembered, sunk some time ago, and nothing was ever recovered from her.

Sir James hopes there may be another contest for the America Cup, but he has no idea of challenging. He raced the Lamorna, which was formerly the Cicely, at Cowes at the recent regatta, and though his boat led through-out the time allowance given to Lord Dunraven's Kariad deprived him of the King's Cup.

Royal Cork Yacht Club extended an invitation to Sir James and party to use the club while at Queenstown.

LAWN TENNIS

MUSKERRY LAWN TENNIS AND CROQUET CLUB.

The annual tournament under the auspices of the above club took place last week. The weather—an important factor on these occasions—was extremely unsettled, frequent showers falling. The entries were the largest on record, many of the competitors coming from Cork and neighbourhood. High praise is due to the Ladies' Committee for their excellent catering, which was greatly appreciated. Tea was served each afternoon by both members and players. Mr P. Taylor, assisted by Mr Carter, deserves much thanks for his arduous work in connection with the tournament, which was so well supported and so successful. Mr Woodley, after having graciously distributed the prizes, was the recipient of hearty cheers. Appended are the details:—
