As regards industrial alcohol, certain proposals had been made by people from different countries, and if they were to develop it in this country on anything like the same basis as other countries, so as to produce one-tenth of their power alcohol requirements, an expenditure of more than half a million would be necessary.

800 AT IRISH COURSE

BALLINGEARY COLLEGE TO HOLD SECOND SESSION

The present session of the Ballingeary Irish College, which opened on Monday, July 3, under the auspices of the Cork County Vocational Education Committee, has proved one of the most successful ever held in the College since its establishment in 1904.

The course is attended by upwards of 800 students. The outstanding feature of this course is the strict adherence to the regulation that nothing but Irish is spoken during the term—failure to comply involves expulsion.

This year, in order to cater for the many pupils who had to be refused permission to attend the July course, a special course on the same lines is being organised during the month of August for a limited number of pupils.

Particulars of the course can be had from Seamus O. Seaghdha, 14 Cearnóg Pharnaill, Dublin, or 27 Tuckey Street, Cork.

HOSPITAL PATIENT'S DEATH

GOT UP TO LOOK OUT AT AN AEROPLANE

A verdict of accidental death, caused by a fall in his ward at Grangegorman Mental Hospital, was returned at an inquest, held in the Mental Hospital yesterday, by Dr. W. MacErlean, B.L., City Coroner, and a jury, on Joseph Byrne (72), The Mall, Co. Wicklow, who died on Wednesday last.

Patrick Cunningham, an attendant, stated that on last Sunday week the deceased left his bed to go to the window to look at an aeroplane, when he slipped and fell to the floor. Witness asked him when he returned to bed after looking out whether he was hurt and he said he was not.
